

To : Juvenile Officers

Subject: Youth Leadership Safety Program Course

1. The New Jersey State Police, Field Operations Sections, Operations Safety Bureau, Community Services Unit will conduct a forty-hour (40) training course to be held at the Atlantic County Training Center, Egg Harbor, New Jersey, during the week of March 8, 2010 through March 12, 2010 commencing at 8:00 am- 4:00 pm Monday through Friday.
2. The Youth Leadership Safety course is a week-long school and is a collaborative effort designed for grade school students. It offers a classroom educational safety awareness curriculum with strategies focusing on the development of social competence, communication skills, respect, responsibilities, decision- making, bullying and conflict resolution. This course is recognized and sponsored in part by the New Jersey Association of School Resource Officers.
3. Officers who have received certifications and are currently certified in one of the following school-based programs, such as the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) and/or the Gang Resistance Education and Training (GREAT) are eligible to attend an eight-hour (8) familiarization and adaption training day to be held only on Wednesday, March 10, 2010.
4. This training is free for all participants and will be held at the:
Atlantic County Training Center
5033 English Creek Avenue
Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey 08234
Phone: (609) 407-6741
5. If interested in attending this innovative school-based program, please contact:
Sergeant Gregory Williams #4756
New Jersey State Police
Community Services Unit
P.O. Box 7068
West Trenton, New Jersey 08628
(609) 882-2000 ext. 2844
Lpp4756@gw.njsp.org
6. Registration forms are to be completed by February 28th, 2010 and are available on the New Jersey State Police Website Page (www.njsp.org) at the Community Services Unit link.

By Order of the Superintendent
LTC J. Mattos, Jr.
Deputy Superintendent of Operations
New Jersey State Police