

Subject: Youth Leadership Safety Course

1. The New Jersey State Police, Field Operations Sections, Operations Safety Bureau, School and Traffic Safety Unit will conduct an eight-hour Youth Leadership Safety Program Trainer Course/Refresher, to be held at the Troop "C" Headquarters Classroom, Hamilton, New Jersey. The training will take place Monday, February 28, 2011, 8:00 am to 4:00 pm.
2. The Youth Leadership Safety Program is elementary through middle school curriculum consisting of fourteen lessons which focus on safety awareness and the development of social competence, communication skills, respect, responsibilities and decision-making skills. Lessons include topics such as Bullying, Internet Safety, Health & Nutrition, Safe Boating & Water Safety and Conflict Resolution. This course is recognized and sponsored in part by the New Jersey Association of School Resource Officers (NJASRO).
3. Officers who have received certifications and are currently certified in one of the following school-based programs, such as the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE), the Gang Resistance Education Training (GREAT), and Basic School Resource Officer (SRO) are eligible to attend this one-day eight-hour (8) certification and/or refresher course.
4. This training is free for all participants and will be held at the:
Troop "C" Headquarters
1200 Negron Road
Hamilton, New Jersey 08691
Phone: (609) 584-5000
5. If interested in attending this innovative school-based program, please contact:
Staff Sergeant Gregory Williams #4756
New Jersey State Police
School and Traffic Safety Unit
P.O. Box 7068
West Trenton, New Jersey 08628
(609) 882-2000 ext. 2844
Lpp4756@gw.njsp.org
6. Registration forms are to be completed by February 18, 2011 and are available by request through the NJSP, School and Traffic Safety Unit (formerly the Community Services Unit) via e-mail or fax to your department. Registration forms can also be found online at the NJ State Police Website under News. www.njsp.org